My happy pills

Our kittens have the softest fur,
And the sweetest little purr,
And such little velvet paws
With such cunning little claws,
And blue eyes, just like the sky!

Two are stripped like tigers,
Three are as black as black can be
And they run so fast and play with their tails and are so gay,
It is not a pity that Each must grow into a cat?

Hamsha Kerathan is a very nice lady. She lives all alone in a small village close to Chankanai. She is in her late fifties. But she is still quite young in spirit. She has a fair complexion, long black hair and deep blue eyes. She has a kind face and when you meet her, the first thing you notice her is her warm, friendly smile. Her face is a little lined now, but I think she is still rather attractive. She is a kind person you can always go to, if you have a problem.

Hamsha Kerathan likes reading and gardening and she likes to go for long walks in the countryside. She is a very active lady. She always helps people. Sometimes, she does the shopping for some old people in the village. She is extremely generous, but not very tolerant of people who don't agree with her.

Listening text

John and Sam were the fastest bike riders in the whole school. Sam pumped up his tyres. He oiled the chain. He checked the frame of his bike to make sure everything was right. John did not do anything to his bike. John thought that nothing could possibly go wrong. He laughed at the work Sam was doing while he was watching a movie. John and Sam arrived at the race on Saturday. Bob shouted "go". The boys began to pedal. Suddenly John heard a noise. The chain had fallen off his bike. Sam kept on pedaling and won the race.
